The Southern Ute Drum wins 12 Indigenous Journalists Association awards

Divine Windy Boy/SU Drum

Athletes from the three Ute sister tribes meet for the Tri-Ute Games in Ignacio, hosted once again by the Southern Ute Indian Tribe. Teams go head-to-head Wednesday, July 10 - Friday, July 12 competing in co-ed basketball, volleyball, wrestling, golf, archery, skateboarding, hand games, and the Ute Warrior challenge - closing out the final day. Ahead of the multi-day sporting event, teams gathered at the SunUte Community Center for opening ceremonies. The Tri-Ute Games encourage friendly competition, good sportsmanship, and interconnection as the young athletes compete in their respective sports and events.

Southern Ute Indian Tribe takes legal action against the State of Colorado

Tribal lawsuit to ensure Gaming Compacts honored

Staff report SOUTHERN UTE INDIAN TRIBE

At the American Indian Affairs Interim Study Committee's inaugural meeting, Chairman Melvin J. Baker of the Southern Ute Indian Tribe announced that the Tribe has filed a lawsuit against the State of Colorado to ensure fair access to economic opportunities voted into law by Colorado voters in 2019.

The Southern Ute Indian Tribe and the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe have been unfairly blocked by the Colorado Department of Revenue from engaging in online sports betting, despite longstanding State-Tribal Compacts explicitly allowing them to do so. After years of attempts to negotiate a fair agreement, the in Colorado since 2020. # Fire safety and awareness

By Melvin J. Baker, Chairman SOUTHERN UTE INDIAN TRIBE

Maykh!

As summer temperatures rise and hotter/drier weather becomes the norm in Southwest Colorado, it is important to remember that fire safety goes hand-in-hand with summer fun. Here are some helpful tips to protect you, your loved ones, and nature:

Barbecue Safety

- Before using a grill, check the connection between the propane tank and the fuel line. Make sure the venturi tubes - where the air and gas mix - are not blocked.
- Do not overfill the propane tank.
- Regularly remove grease, fat, and debris from the grill and trays to prevent flare-ups and ensure even cooking.
- Be careful when using lighter fluid. Do not add fluid to an already lit fire because the flames can flash back up into the container and explode.
- Keep all matches and lighters away from children. Teach your children to report any loose matches or lighters to an adult immediately. Supervise children around outdoor grills.
- Dispose of hot coals properly – douse them with plenty of water and stir them to ensure that the fire is out. Never place them in plastic, paper or wooden containers.
- Never grill/barbecue in enclosed areas - carbon monoxide could be produced.

for its commitments."

In the Gaming Compacts, which have been in place for almost 30 years and approved by the federal government, the State agreed that the Tribes can engage in "those gaming activities and bet amounts that are identical to the activities and bet amounts that are authorized in the State of Colorado."

In 2019, Colorado voters approved Proposition DD, legalizing online sports betting in the state, thus permitting the Tribes to engage in the same activities. However, for the past four years, the Tribe has been stonewalled by the State of Colorado, unfairly preventing it from accessing these economic opportunities.

What is the reason for banning Colorado tribes from equal access to this year in Southwest Colorado amicably resolved simimarket?

You Can Use! HYDRATION

Staying hydrated is key to enjoying a hot summer day. While water helps to cool your body temperature, it is also essential for lubricating joints, aiding in digestion and many other body functions.

How to stay hydrated? Of course, drinking water and other low sugar beverages is one way, but eating foods that are high in fluids are also part of staying hydrated.

Foods high in fluid:

- Fruits such as watermelon, cantaloupe, and strawberries, oranges, pineapple.
- Veggies such as spinach, celery, cucumber, and tomatoes.
- Dairy such as cottage cheese, yogurt, and milk.

Need ways to enjoy water more?

Try adding mint, cucumber, lemons, or limes. Drink on a schedule rather than waiting until you are thirsty, and you will need more if you are exercising and/or sweating a lot. Carry a water bottle with you and drink throughout the day!

Other factors leading to misuse include moving a child out of a booster seat too soon and using a car seat that is not correctly fitted to the child's height, weight and physical development.

According to the NDCF database, children aged one and under riding in rear-facing only car seats (infant bucket seats) had the highest misuse rate of any age group and type of car seat.

"Car seats are not necessarily intuitive, and they are all different, which is why it's so important to read the manufacturer's manual, even if you think you've got it figured out," said Trooper Kent Trimbach of the Colorado State Patrol and program coordinator for Car Seats Colorado. INTERNAL AUDIT

Samantha Elk shines with Internal Audit under YEP

Staff Report INTERNAL AUDIT

This summer, Internal Audit welcomed a promising young talent, Samantha Elk. As part of the Southern Ute Education Department's Youth Employment Program, referred to as YEP, participants were able to meet with different departments before final selection. Wanting a challenge, Samantha ended up selecting Internal Audit.

As a sophomore at Bayfield High School, Samantha is already considering different universities and Brian Bex, Director of Intermajors, including neuroscience. Internal Audit was the right choice for her, so she could exercise skills such as research, writing, critical thinking, and attention to detail.

A few of the primary objectives of the Summer Youth Employment Program is to ensure that participants gain practical knowledge, real-work skills, learn about the services within the Tribe, and obtain a better understanding of possible future careers with the Tribe.

Old KSUT Radio Station Parking Lot Closure

The Tribe's Environmental Programs Department plans to remove hazardous materials from the old KSUT Radio Station. The property is located at 123 Capote Drive. Remediation will commence on June 24, 2024, and last six to eight weeks. Remediation will consist of removal of interior and exterior hazardous materials and replacement of the roof, without compromising the building structure. Contractors will use safety measures during remediation to protect tribal staff and mitigate any public health or environmental risks.

Remediation activities require ample space for the contractor's vehicles and waste receptor, so the first row of the south parking lot will be closed for the six to eight weeks of project work. Please consider parking in other areas during this time. The parking lot closure will be reopened following completion of remediation activities.

If you have any questions, please contact Remediation Program Manager, Mitch Dorsk, at 970-563-2272, or Remediation Scientist I, Crystal Kelly, at 970-563-2217.

Division of Social Services JULY IS BEREAVED PARENTS AWARENESS MONTH

Bereaved Parents Awareness Month is recognized every year in July. It is dedicated to raising awareness about the grief parents go through after the unfortunate loss of a child and the kind of support needed to overcome this unimaginable grief.

Bereaved Parents Awareness Month exists to provide support to parents who have lost their children, but its other aim is to raise awareness about how many parents have suffered the loss of a child. Not only does it enable bereaved parents to find resources and support to overcome their grief, but it also seeks to provide information to others, including family, friends, and relatives, on how they can help parents overcome their loss.

Facts about Bereavement:

Those left behind: Each death leaves behind an average of four to five mourners.

Time heals grief: For most people, extreme feelings of grief begin to go away after six months of the tragedy. Caregivers may process grief differently: People caring for someone with a long-term illness might begin their grieving process while the loved one is still alive.

Yearning takes over: Studies have found that in the two years after a death, the most reported symptom is yearning for the person who is Complicated grief: Research has found that if symptoms of grief aren't fading away by six months after the loss, it may be a sign of a more serious problem called "complicated grief."

Why Parent Bereavement awareness is important: It normalizes talking about tragedy; Many people who have experienced the death of a child find it hard to talk about the child. People often avoid mentioning the person's name or even talking about it as they think it can cause pain to the mourners. But sharing feelings always helps overcome grief. Many people go through it: By the age of 70, 15% of American parents have lost a child, which is a greater number than many of us would have assumed. Bereavement affects a lot of parents around the world and although they might get better with time, they will always appreciate any support. It's an extremely stressful event: Losing a child is one of the worst things that can happen to a person. It's safe to say that it's every parent's biggest nightmare. Such an event can have harmful effects on the parents, including depression, post-traumatic stress disorder, marital disruption, and even premature death.

You are not alone:

Angelina Whitehorse Family Therapist

Tips for friends and family members:

Offer support: Social support becomes more important than ever during times of grief. Even if rouse for the firm of the support becomes more important than ever during times of grief. Even if the firm of the fi be there for them.

Even something as simple as being a good listener can be extremely comforting. Lend an ear: to any parents you know who are going through this difficult time and provide support. Offer to do small chores for them if you feel they might be finding it hard to cope with other aspects of their lives.

It's ok to say the child's name, as parents want to hear their child's name spoken. Be the first to say their name and let the other person know it is okay for them to say their name too, as often, people are afraid they will upset the parent by talking about them. This allows for conversation and positive mental health healing.

POSITIVE INDIAN PARENTING

Honoring Our Children By Honoring Our Traditions

Positive Indian Parenting (PIP) has been used for over 35 years and remains popular today because the teachings are timeless. Historically, we had rich teachings that helped children grow up safe with strong families. Colonization threatened those teachings—our Native families were being separated and traditional practices were at risk of being lost. PIP was developed in the 1980s to fill this void and was designed to help parents and families remember our traditional teachings and apply them in the modern world. In part one of each session, we will discuss examples of traditional practices and teachings from several different tribes. Instructors also share teachings from local areas and communities. Part two of each session discusses how to apply those teachings and values today. Complete all 8 sessions to receive a certificate

Tasha Rodriguez is a Southern Ute tribal member, and she has been working as a paralegal for nine years. Before that, she worked in the Southern Ute Tribal Court as a court clerk and briefly worked with dispatch. Gabby Herrera is also a Southern Ute tribal member and has been working as a legal assistant for the Legal Department since 2021 following her graduation from Fort Lewis College.

A lay counselor or a lay advocate is a person who is a non-lawyer and who is qualified by the Court to represent a party in a court case. Lay counselors are held to the same standards and are entitled to the same rights, privileges, obligations, and duties as an attorney admitted to practice before court. Job qualifications include eligibility to practice as a lay counselor in Tribal Court, general knowledge of tribal jurisdiction and Indian law, experience as a legal secretary, court clerk or paralegal, and have a Bachelor of Arts in law enforcement, criminal justice, or related studies.

ROLE OF THE WOMAN IN THE SUN DANCE CIRCLE

By Sunshine Cloud Smith

Words of Wisdom from the Lodge of Edwin Cloud - Sun Dance Chief 1850 - 1946

It is the women who are in the Medicine Lodge, singing and praying who support the Dancers. Women have certain obligations! The women must wear a dress and a shawl, when sitting on the left side (drum side) of the Medicine Lodge and to bring a prayer brush (willows) to sing.

But before the Sun dance they have to refrain from cohabitating with their companion, (if he's a participant of the Sun dance) a month before and a month after Sun dance. Women cannot be around the Inner Circle, (the one that has the Medicine Lodge within) if they are pregnant, menstruating, nursing, or who have had a child within two months of the Sun dance.

Women cannot wear any type of revealing clothing; tank, tube or halter tops, shorts, sundresses or any jewelry. Mirrored sunglasses, perfumes, hairsprays, perfumed lotions, suntan oil or lotion, face powder or talcum powder or anything else with a strong smell such as soaps, deodorants, etc., are also inappropriate. Please bathe before you go to the Sun dance as the Dancers have a sharper sense of Women also need to supervise their children as they are a distraction to the Dancer when they run around and play within the Inner Circle. Do not let them near the Drums, the Tipi or the outdoor privy near the Lodge. That privy is for the Dancers only! Also do not let the children play near the fire. Actually small children should stay at the camp or at home with a babysitter.

In this modern day leave your stereos, radio, tape recorders, and camcorders at home. Turn your car radio off when you enter the Sun dance Circle. No gun-chewing or hard candies are allowed within the Inner Circle and definitely no food, liquids, alcohol or drugs.

No metal chairs or anything that will reflect the sun should be taken into the Lodge.

Women sit on the left side only. Do not ever touch the drum or any man within the Medicine Lodge or any of the Dancers. Women cannot even touch a Sun dancer's clothing or other items except when they are being made.

Women need to bring fresh mint leafs, sage, tobacco, and willows (all to be cut by hand) to the Dancers, but to enter when the drumming has stopped and ask the Doorman to go up and call the Dancer. Everyone needs to wait until the Drum stops to enter and to keep the Doorway open. Never block the doorway. No loud talking, arguing or laughing in the Lodge as this is a sacred place and must revered as such; Respect, Honor and Dignity Always. Women who want to fast need to stay in the Camp area as a protection for themselves from outside contamination.

This is what every female over the age of twelve has always known if she is from a Sun dance Family. As we have gotten away from our traditions, this is just a reminder of what a woman has to do for the Sun dance and is not intended as belittlement but rather as a lesson for everyone; to protect the Dancers, Singers, Police Officers, Cooks, Fireman, and all the participants. To keep the Sun Dance a strong blessing for All People. The Sun dance is not a three or four day ceremony but rather a Sacred Way of Life for all.

When you enter the Medicine Lodge, shed your hate, purge your heart of all bad things, for hate is the sickness of the Spirit, poison to the Soul. The way of the Great Spirit is Love, Peace and Harmony. Many seek HIm, not all find Him. With pure heart and soul, the Great Spirit will touch you and uplift you to soar with Him like an Eagle.

We are all One with the Great

POSTPONED!

Until Friday July 26th

Píinu Núuchi Farmers Market & Outdoor Biz Lab Postponed

Unfortunately, we have had to make the decision to postpone the launch of the Píinu Núuchi Farmers Market & Outdoor Biz Lab. We did not receive enough completed vendor registrations by the Monday at 5pm deadline to move forward with having the market this week. We also spoke with a few folks who said they were interested in being vendors but won't have anything to sell for a few more weeks. In order to accommodate some of those folks and give us time to recruit more vendors we have made the decision to delay the start of the Farmers Market Season to Friday, July 26, 2024. We will extend the season for an additional two-weeks into October to keep with the originally planned 12 market dates for those vendors who have already paid for the full season. We will issue refunds as well to anyone who would prefer that option. On the bright side we will also be extending the deadline to sign-up for the full season and receive a discount to Monday, July 22 at 10 p.m.! We have received tons of positive feedback and a lot of great comments from people stating how excited they are to see this event come to our community. We still really want to see it happen and be successful, but to get there we need your help! If you know anyone who might have some extra fruits, veggies, etc. to sell please encourage them to register for the Farmers Market by visiting the below link.

Remember ALL are welcome and you don't need to be a seasoned farmers market veteran to be a vendor. There is also no season long commitment required. Pick some stuff from your garden, come join us for the first couple of markets, and see how it goes. You might just enjoy it more than you think ... and making a little extra spending money is always nice!

Celebrate a well-lived life by making sure that your wishes are carried out by the next generation. To make sure that your wishes are respected after you pass, please consider drafting a will, either through our program or with a local attorney.

IIM ACCOUNT HOLDERS

Please request from BTFA a copy of your Individual Tribal Interest Report (ITI), and bring it with you.

WHY WILLS?

- · Federal law includes provisions that say how Indian Trust Lands pass after a Tribal Member passes on.
- Over time, parcels may have been split into hundreds of small shares as Indian Trust Land passed from generation to generation. This process is called "fractionation."
- · A federal law, A.I.P.R.A., is now attempting to decrease fractionation by providing that most Indian Trust Land will go only to the one oldest descendant - unless the owner
- To make sure that your Trust Land, and other important items of property go to the people you want to have that property, you should write a will.

The Tribal Wills Clinic is a group of volunteers including law students and licensed attorneys, who donate their time to help Tribal Members write wills.

WHAT DOES IT COST?

- Our services are entirely free.
- · At a law firm in Denver, the cost for a will would be about $2,500 and the process would take about two weeks.

HOW LONG DOES THE PROCESS TAKE?

- · About two hours on two different days.
- · On the first day you will talk with a law student about what you would like to have included in your documents. You will have plenty of time to ask questions.
- That night the law student will write up all of the documents, and have them checked by a licensed attorney.
- On a second day, when the documents are ready, you will come back for the signing ceremony, which will take at least an hour, as the law student goes over everything to be sure that it is right.

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT FOR A WILL

- Names of Friends and Family who will be Included in the Will To save time at the interview, write down the names of the friends and family you want to mention in the will. Include the birthdate, address, cellphone number, enrollment or census number for each person, if you know it.
- Special Gifts What is important for specific family members to have?
- · Personal Representative Who should take charge to make sure your wishes are carried out after you pass on?
- Joint Tenants or Tenants in Common If you want to give a piece of land to be owned by several people at the same time, you will need to decide whether you want them to own the property as Joint Tenants or as Tenants in Common.
- Joint Tenants means that the last person surviving will own all of the land. Tenants in Common means that as each person passes on, that person's share goes into his or her estate. The law student will explain more about this.

well within the upper half of the event's 180 finishers (hailing from Holly but representing the Kansas Junior High School Rodeo Association, Briley Seufer came in 119th), and helping the squad ultimately accumulate a fourth-place 2,160 points. All told, only Minnesota (2,405), Utah (4,020) and Texas (5,190)registered more.

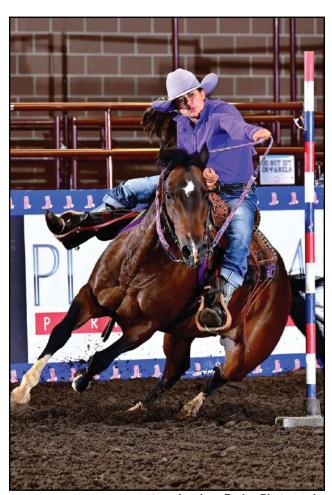

On the boys' side, Colorado racked up a third-place 4,325 points – and thereby clinched third in the combined standings with a grand total of 6,265. Texas (10,455) topped the table and Utah (8,730) was runner-up.

In the girls' goat tying competition, two Colorado entrants both placed top-20 after reaching the Saturday short go, though Rima wasn't one. Granby's Sego Krempin finished ninth overall in a total time of 27.34 seconds for her three successful attempts, and Wray's Kaycee Clark – representing Team Kansas - totaled a tenth-place 27.81.

Kenna Hodson of Hooper, Utah, won World Champion status by securing her three goats in 24.97 seconds, while Rima ended up 52nd (again out of 180) by totaling 22.31 seconds on me," she said. "He once of Kersey finished 29th in her two guaranteed tries.
